Elevate your supply chain and connect to a world of opportunity

Linking people and data to uncover value

Orchestrators of empowered supply chains

From source and deliver to procure and pay, BridgeNet leverages a unique combination of in-house developed technologies, deep experience in supply chain transformation, global operational hubs, and dynamic insights to deliver an elevated experience that is neutral, innovative, and value-driven.

Here's how we do it:

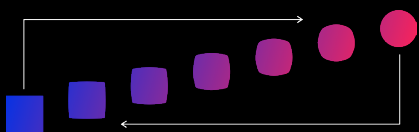

Facilitate connections across the global ecosystem.

BridgeNet's proprietary integration hub enables agile connectivity with source systems, including ERPs, WMSs, LSPs, carriers, freight payment providers, IoT, and more.

Build superior customized solutions.

There is no one-size-fits-all approach. BridgeNet partners with customers to design and deploy solutions that are fit for purpose and enable future growth.

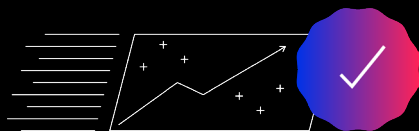

Empower transformation.

Our team of global experts seeks to continually discover never-before-seen opportunities and meaningful outcomes.

Remain neutral.

BridgeNet is an independently managed company and member of the PSA Group, delivering unbiased data without a hidden agenda.

Deliver value.

A proven track record of delivering significant cost savings and value creation projects for customers across a range of industry verticals.
